2025 HELPS WEEKEND

THEME: THE POWER OF CARE

FOREWORD

The theme of the HELPS WEEKEND in this wonderful Landmark year is “The Power of Care.” This is very important given the great emphasis that the Lord Himself has placed on this subject in the scriptures which shows that it is very germane in making it to God's kingdom. He spoke many parables in this respect like the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:30-37).

It is also important because it is a crucial element of the RCCG Mission's drive for the attainment of the vision of the church, To Make Heaven and to Take as Many People as possible along.

Much more significant is its relevance in the strategic pursuit of Vision 2032 that currently provides focus for all our church growth efforts in the RCCG.

One fundamental truth about the Lord God of the Christian faith is that He cares and is an all-caring God who places very great value on every soul He has created. That's why He is long-suffering and patient in judgement, and asks His children to cast their burden upon Him, because He cares — (1Pet 5:7; 2Pet 3:15). We are to be like the Lord in caring for others and being our brother's keeper. That's the thrust of His teaching in the story of the good Samaritan earlier mentioned.

God's care is vast and pervasive. The Lord cares for all in His goodness and mercifulness, and we to be like Him.

Matthew 5:45 KJV says:

“That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven; He maketh His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.”

God is love (1John 4:8,16), and the comprehensive power of care is one of the strong instruments of expressing God's type of love. Love and care go together and, indeed, are

In His comprehensive care, God reaches out to the whole world and His children, provides for and protects them, searches for and brings back the lost, redeems, delivers, saves, strengthens and upholds the feeble and the weak. What a caring Heavenly Father our God is! Even He cares so much that gave His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ for the redemption of mankind.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

The HELPS WEEKEND is primarily to extend the love of God in Jesus Christ and true, genuine care to those in need, particularly the many souls that are still languishing desperately in darkness and acute lack and want. This is just like Jesus Christ Himself did and has directed His followers/believers to do. (Luke 4:18-19; 15:3-7; John 14:12; 20:21).

Brothers and sisters in the Lord, the Power of Care is being emphasized and given attention in this weekend as to different ways and dimensions that care can be shown in fulfilling the purpose of God in the advancement of His kingdom on earth.

God bless you as you pay attention and actively engage in caring for others, both within and outside the church.

Have a Landmark 2025 HELPS WEEKEND!

BRING ME A MINSTREL

2 KINGS 3:15

INTRODUCTION

2 Kings 3:15— "But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him."

Bring me a minstrel means bring a vessel who can create a spiritual atmosphere through music in order to be in God's presence to be able to fellowship with Him and know His mind. It can also mean, bring me a minstrel for me to experience a transformational change of being a natural man to a supernatural man who will be able to see the invisible and hear the inaudible. (Ezekiel 37:1)

Who Is A Minstrel?

A minstrel is not just a skillful musician, but a born-again worshipper, Spirit-filled Christian, humble, with clean hands and a pure heart (Psalm 24:3-4; Hebrews 12:14). Many can sing but not all can attract His presence. Only sanctified holy vessels will sing to attract God's attention. (John 4:23-24; 9:31)

"But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." John 4:23-24.

We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him. (John 9:31 ESV)

Minstrels are anointed Ministers who create an atmosphere for God's presence.

What Are the Attributes of Minstrels?

Christian music ministry must not be limited to sound and melody, it is spiritual because through Spirit-led music, minstrels prepare the ground for God's presence to dwell, much like Elisha called for a minstrel to set the prophetic atmosphere. Therefore, the following are some of the attributes of minstrels to always make spiritual impact:

1. A minstrel will not run after fame but after flame—Matthew 16:24, 1 Samuel 16:23, Psalm 22:3; 2 Kings 3:15. Minstrels should be able to charge up the atmosphere for the presence of God (Holy Ghost fire) to come down.

2025 HELPS WEEKEND

(CHOIR, USHERS, PRAYER CHAMPIONS
AND WELFARE DEPARTMENTS)

The name of the minstrel that played for Elisha is unknown till today, yet we are still talking about the prophetic encounter. 2 Kings 3:10-18.

A minstrel that will make impact should only be interested in making Jesus popular. John 3:30 "He must increase, but I must decrease." However, there is no one who is genuinely interested in making the gospel popular that will lose anything here on earth. Mark 10: 29-31.

2. A minstrel must continuously answer the following questions:

a. Who am I serving?

* Is my service about God, man, or myself?

* Is it merely about meeting personal needs, enriching my pockets, or is it an act of worship intended to bring down the presence of God for healing, salvation, direction, and the transformation of souls? (Colossians 3:23-24, John 4:23-24)

b. Where am I going?

After I have sung and ministered here on earth, will I be counted worthy to sing in heaven? Is my heart right with God beyond the pulpit and the microphone? (Matthew 7:21, Philippians 3:20-21, Revelation 14:3)

c. What is at stake by my ministration?

* Is my ministration just a performance, or does it bring down God's glory?

* Are there lives depending on my ministration. Will it take people to hell or make people to go to heaven? (Ezekiel 33:6, 1 Corinthians 9:27; Romans 14:7; Matthew 5:16)

3. A Minstrel Must Be Skillful

* Anybody can perform music, but not everyone can minister effectively.

* A true minstrel must be skillful, trained, and spiritually attuned. II Timothy 2:15; Eccl 10:10.

God does not just use availability, He also values ability.

"Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the LORD is with him." — 1 Samuel 16:18

4. Must Be Born Again and Have A Lifestyle of Holiness

You cannot truly minister in the Spirit if you are not born of the Spirit. Also, there is no place in the kingdom of God for those who are not born of God.

"Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." John 3:3

Being born again is the foundation; holiness is the evidence. A minstrel's lifestyle must be free from sin, marked by purity, humility, and obedience to the Word. (Hebrews 12:14; Romans 12:1. Isaiah 52:11)

IN CONCLUSION

Minstrels are not mere performers, but ministers of God who shift spiritual climates and honour God by magnifying His presence. A minstrel must make music a divine tool for care, healing, deliverance, and spiritual warfare by praying and living a worthy lifestyle. When empowered by the Holy Spirit, music becomes a pathway through which God Himself manifests His presence and power. (Psalms 24:3-4)

THURSDAY 18TH SEPT, 2025 — USHERS

THE HURS & THE AARONS

EXODUS 17:8-13

INTRODUCTION:

Anyone can become weary when there are no helpers or divisions of labor (Exodus 18:18). At Rephidim, Israel fought the Amalekites. Moses stood on a hill holding God's staff; whenever he raised his hand, Israel prevailed (Exodus 17:11). As Moses grew tired, Aaron and Hur came alongside him. They held up his hands and placed a stone under him so he could rest (Exodus 17:12-13). They kept his hands raised until sunset, and Israel secured complete victory.

In the same way, ushers must work effectively to lift burdens, support leaders, and ensure all services flow smoothly. Aaron and Hur were "Helpers of Destiny" to their spiritual leader; they fulfilled their roles perfectly and shared in the victory. Today's ushers are called to do the same and more in God's vineyard. John 14:12 requires us to do greater works.

Aaron and Hur: The Lessons at Rephidim

1. Moses, a visionary and a spiritual leader (Exodus 17:9), A well-organized leader.
Moses understood the balance of warfare, work, and faith. Some were appointed to fight, Moses applied the rod of God, and Aaron and Hur stood ready to assist. James 2:17.
2. Intercessory is important in winning.
Moses was an intercessor so also Aaron and Hur, his ushers. Exodus 17: Exodus 32:11-14
3. Obedience and courageous followers.
Joshua obeys without hesitation, leading the troops against Amalek. Exodus 17:10, 13, Isaiah 1:19, 1 Samuel 15:22;
4. A Working Partnership
Ushers in Aaron and Hur didn't develop a better idea than their leader openly. Joshua fights, effectively, Moses prays and Aaron and Hur supported Moses. Amos 3:3;
5. Aaron and Hur: Faithful Helpers
Recognizing Limitation and acted swiftly. They notice Moses' fatigue and step in when his hands grow heavy. Exodus 17:9. They place a stone for rest and hold up Moses' hands until sunset. Exodus 17:12

2025 HELPS WEEKEND

(CHOIR, USHERS, PRAYER CHAMPIONS
AND WELFARE DEPARTMENTS)

The Expected Roles of the Present Day Hurs and Aarons.

1. Emotional Intelligence.

Be emotionally aware and responsive to leadership moods and needs. 1 Kings 3:16:28; James 1:19. Recognize when to speak, assist, or withdraw. Proverbs 25:11. Create stability in volatile or spiritually charged atmospheres. Philippians 2:3-4, Proverbs 15:1

2. Hunger for Righteousness. Mathew 5:6; Psalm 42:1-2, Philippians 3:9-10

Develop a spiritual appetite for godliness, holiness, and faithfulness. 1 Corinthians 4:2, Hebrews 12:14

3. Readiness to go Extra Miles for God. Isaiah 6:8, 2 Corinthians 12:15, Matthew 17:12.

Going the extra mile for God is not about doing the bare minimum, it's about doing more than expected, out of love and devotion to God. True greatness in the Kingdom is found in those who serve wholeheartedly, sacrificially, and joyfully, even when no one is watching. Colossians 3:23-24

4. Excellent Spirit.

Ushers and every worker must be able to do things right and perfectly. Daniel 6:3, Proverbs 22:29, Colossians 3:23 The present-day Hurs and Aarons must develop a character marked by integrity in dealings, wisdom in engagements, discipline in actions, humility, and a positive attitude.

5. Faithfulness and Integrity.

Be steady, loyal, and trustworthy in doing what God has asked you to do. It is sticking with your duty to God and people, even when it is hard. Isaiah 42:6; 2 Timothy 2:15.

Integrity means doing what is right in God's eyes, even when no one is looking. It is being honest, pure, and truthful in your words and actions—both in public and in private.

IN CONCLUSION:

Aaron and Hur were not just available—they were known by God and chosen to stand in support at a critical time. They served with quiet strength, spiritual sensitivity, and unwavering loyalty.

- Does God know you? —2 Timothy 2:19
- Are you genuinely born again? —John 3:3-5
- Who are you truly working for—God or man? —Colossians 3:23

It is not enough to serve in the church; what matters most is that you belong to Christ and walk in obedience. God uses those who are saved, faithful, and surrendered. Like Aaron and Hur, will you be found ready when the battle comes?

Let God know you. Serve with purpose. Uphold His work with clean hands and a faithful heart.

FRIDAY: 19TH SEPT, 2025 - PRAYER WARRIORS: (A VIGIL WILL BE GOOD)

THE BURNING ALTAR: THE FIRE MUST NOT GO OUT

TEXT: Leviticus 6:12-13 (KJV)

"And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning. The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out."

INTRODUCTION:

The fire on the altar must never go out. In this age of increased knowledge (Daniel 12:4), marked by moral decadence, spiritual coldness, and increasing compromise, fueled by the advent of the internet and the endless distractions of social media (Matthew 24:12-13), God is calling His people to keep the fire burning on the altar.

The world is louder, busier, and more seductive than ever, but we must not allow our spiritual altars to grow cold in any of our parishes, because fire attracts attention (Leviticus 6:12-13; Revelation 3:15 - 16; Acts 2:1 - 13).

The Lord Almighty is a consuming fire (Hebrews 12:29). In Leviticus 9:24, He demonstrated His power by sending fire from His presence to consume the offering. Therefore, His desire is to continue revealing His power in our midst, just as He instructed: "The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out." (Ezekiel 22:30).

Every believer must be a prayer champion, to continue to stand in the gap for all members,

Why the Burning Altar?

The Fire Must Not Go Out because it signifies:

- Revival and Renewal: God's fire sparks fresh zeal and restores strength. It renews strength and remains source of encouragement to those serving Him. (1 Kings 18:38-40, Acts 2:3; 2 Chronicles 7:1, Isaiah 6:6-8)
- His Presence: The altar's perpetual fire reminds us that God is always with us guiding, guarding, and comforting. (Leviticus 6:12 - 13, Exodus 13: 21; Zechariah 2:5)
- It demonstrates the sovereign power of God. (Leviticus 9:24; Isaiah 66:15; 1 Kings 18:40)
- It reconciles sinners back to God. (1 Kings 18:38-40; Acts 2:41; Isaiah 33:14)
- It separate worldliness from Godliness. God's fire demarcates the holy from the profane, purging the camp of every trace of rebellion and worldliness. (1 Kings 18:40, Numbers 16:35, 1 Corinthians 3:13).
- Judgement on God's Enemy. (1 Kings 18:38-40)

2025 HELPS WEEKEND

(CHOIR, USHERS, PRAYER CHAMPIONS
AND WELFARE DEPARTMENTS)

To Keep the Fire Burning:

1. Fast often. (Matthew 17:21, Isaiah 58:6).
2. Pray Always. (1 Thessalonians 5:17)
3. Preach the Gospel everywhere. (Mark 16:15) A burning altar indicates that we are ready and active in service to take the gospel to everywhere. No message, no fire. No Message, no ministry. (Jeremiah 23:29, Romans 10:14).
4. Praise and Thank God regularly. (Psalms 22:3)
Psalms 22:3 says "But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel". A good worshipper of God, is a carrier of His presence. (John 4:23-2). Praise is spiritual fuel that oxygenates faith and keeps the blaze alive.
5. Total Dependence on the Holy Spirit: Without the Holy Spirit, we are like an electric bulb without a source of energy. The Holy Spirit is the divine fire that ignites and sustains every believer. (Acts 1:8; Acts 2:1-5; Joel 2:28; 2 Timothy 1:6; Galatians 5:25)

Do not offer Strange Fire: Strange fire is detestable, dangerous and not acceptable to God.

Leviticus 10:1-2 - "And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not. {2} And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD."

Hence you must ensure that you are fit to offer Holy acceptable fire unto God by:

1. Being Genuinely Born Again: John 3:3 - "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."
2. Walking in Holiness and Righteousness:
You can't serve the Holy God with an unholy life. 1 Peter 1:15-16, Psalms 24:3-4 - "Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully."
3. Staying in Your Assignment.
Nadab and Abihu stepped outside their divinely appointed roles and they died prematurely. Stay where you have been appointed to function. Let God, and in most cases through your leaders, appoint you and not you appointing yourself. (Leviticus 10:1-10)
4. Not Scheming for Positions and Powers:
True service flows from humble submission and not manipulation. (Gal. 6:7; Acts 8:2)

IN CONCLUSION:

The fire on the altar must not go out is a command, a call, and a covenant responsibility. The prayer champions in RCCG must rise as a burning flame in a dark and cold generation. The burning altar represents a life yielded to God, a heart aflame with devotion, and a commitment that is renewed daily. The fire must burn over and over and it must not be out. (Leviticus 6:12-13).

2025 HELPS WEEKEND
(CHOIR, USHERS, PRAYER CHAMPIONS
AND WELFARE DEPARTMENTS)

SATURDAY - 20TH SEPT, 2025- WELFARE DEPARTMENT:

PRACTICAL WELFARE

– ACTS 10:38

Welfare department should organize a practical welfare outreach.

SUNDAY – 21ST SEPT, 2025 (GRAND FINALE)

THE POWER OF CARE

— ACTS 9:36 – 42

The story of care begins with God Himself. From the Garden of Eden, we see that God is a caring Father. After Adam and Eve sinned, though they disobeyed Him, God did not abandon them. Instead, He clothed their shame with coats of skins (Genesis 3:21). This act of covering was more than physical—it was God's compassion in action.

Throughout Scripture, we see that God's nature is to care, to rescue, and to restore. He is touched with the feeling of our infirmities (Hebrews 4:15), and His love is often expressed through acts of provision, healing, and mercy.

Therefore, when we talk about “The Power of Care,” we are not just speaking of kindness, we are reflecting the very heart of God. John 3:16 says, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

In Acts 9:36–42, we meet a woman named Dorcas (Tabitha), who understood this truth. Her life shows us that care is not just a feeling; it is a ministry. Through her, we see how simple acts of love can create legacies, move heaven, and even bring the dead back to life.

1. Actions will always speak. (Ezekiel 22:30).
Your lifestyle and behaviour reveal who you truly are more than your words. Good or bad, your actions are a witness before men and God.
2. Care Can Move Heaven. (Acts 9:40)
Acts of genuine compassion attract divine attention and open the door for miracles. God honours those who care deeply for others. Psalms 41:1 says "Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble."
3. Kindness to the Needy is a Loan to God. (Proverbs 19:17)
Showing either care or love is seen by God as service unto Him. God rewards every act done with a pure heart. (Matthew 25:4).
4. What you refused to give can take you to hell fire. (Luke 16:19-25)
Neglecting to help those in need can result in eternal judgment. God expects us to use our resources to bless others. (James 4:17, Proverbs 17:5, Proverbs 28:3)
5. Care can reveal the mind of God. (Genesis 18:1-14).

2025 HELPS WEEKEND

(CHOIR, USHERS, PRAYER CHAMPIONS
AND WELFARE DEPARTMENTS)

Showing kindness to strangers can open doors to divine encounters and revelation. Through hospitality, God often releases hidden blessings, (Hebrews 13:2)

6. You Reap What You Sow. (Galatians 6:7; 2 Corinthians 9:6)
Whatever you give out, whether good or evil, returns to you in multiplied form. Life operates on the principle of seed and harvest. (Proverbs 11:25, Luke 6:38; Proverbs 28:27)
7. Care Preaches Christ. (John 13:34-3),
Loving and caring for others demonstrates the message of the Gospel. It reflects Jesus' character and draws people to God. (1 John 3:18)
8. Failure to Help Can Hinder Prayers.
Proverbs 21:13 says "Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard."

HOW TO SHOW CARE

1. Giving to the needy and to the Kingdom matters. (Proverbs 31:20, Acts 10:38):
Giving reflects the love of God (John 3:16), and plays a crucial role in advancing His kingdom and meeting the needs of others. It is a form of worship that brings blessings both to the giver and the receiver.
2. Preaching to the lost souls. (Mark 16:15):
Preaching the gospel is a divine responsibility laid upon every believer to rescue the perishing and populate heaven. The love of Christ compels us to share the good news of salvation without delay. (Matthew 28:19)
3. Pray for others:
Prayer for others demonstrates Christ-like compassion and strengthens the unity of the body of Christ. Intercession is a spiritual service that invites God's intervention in others' lives. (Job 42:10; 1 Timothy 2:1, James 5:16)
4. Forgive others. (Matthew 6:14):
Forgiveness is a command, not an option, for those who have received mercy from God. When we forgive, we reflect God's nature and release ourselves from the bondage of bitterness. (Ephesians 4:32; Mark 11:25)
5. Visit People When and Where Necessary:
Visiting others, especially the sick and the lonely, is a practical expression of God's love and care. It reflects true religion and the heart of service. (Matthew 25:36; James 1:27; Ecclesiastes 7:2)
6. Defend those who are defenseless: (Isaiah 1:17):
Standing up for the defenseless is a godly duty that reflects God's justice and compassion. When we speak for the voiceless and help the helpless, we align ourselves with God's heart for the oppressed. (Proverbs 31:9; Ecclesiastes 5:8).

IN CONCLUSION:

God reveals that true power lies in compassion. His nature is to care, and when we reflect that care, we become vessels of His divine presence. From Eden to Calvary (Acts 10:38), and through the life of Dorcas, we see that care is transformative, it heals, restores, and resurrects. As believers, we are called not only to receive God's love but to embody it, allowing our everyday acts of care to echo the heartbeat of heaven.

If you are not born again, you are hurting yourself and denying others the love God desires to channel through you, (John 3:3-5)
